

Student Well-Being Survey – PARENTS 2009

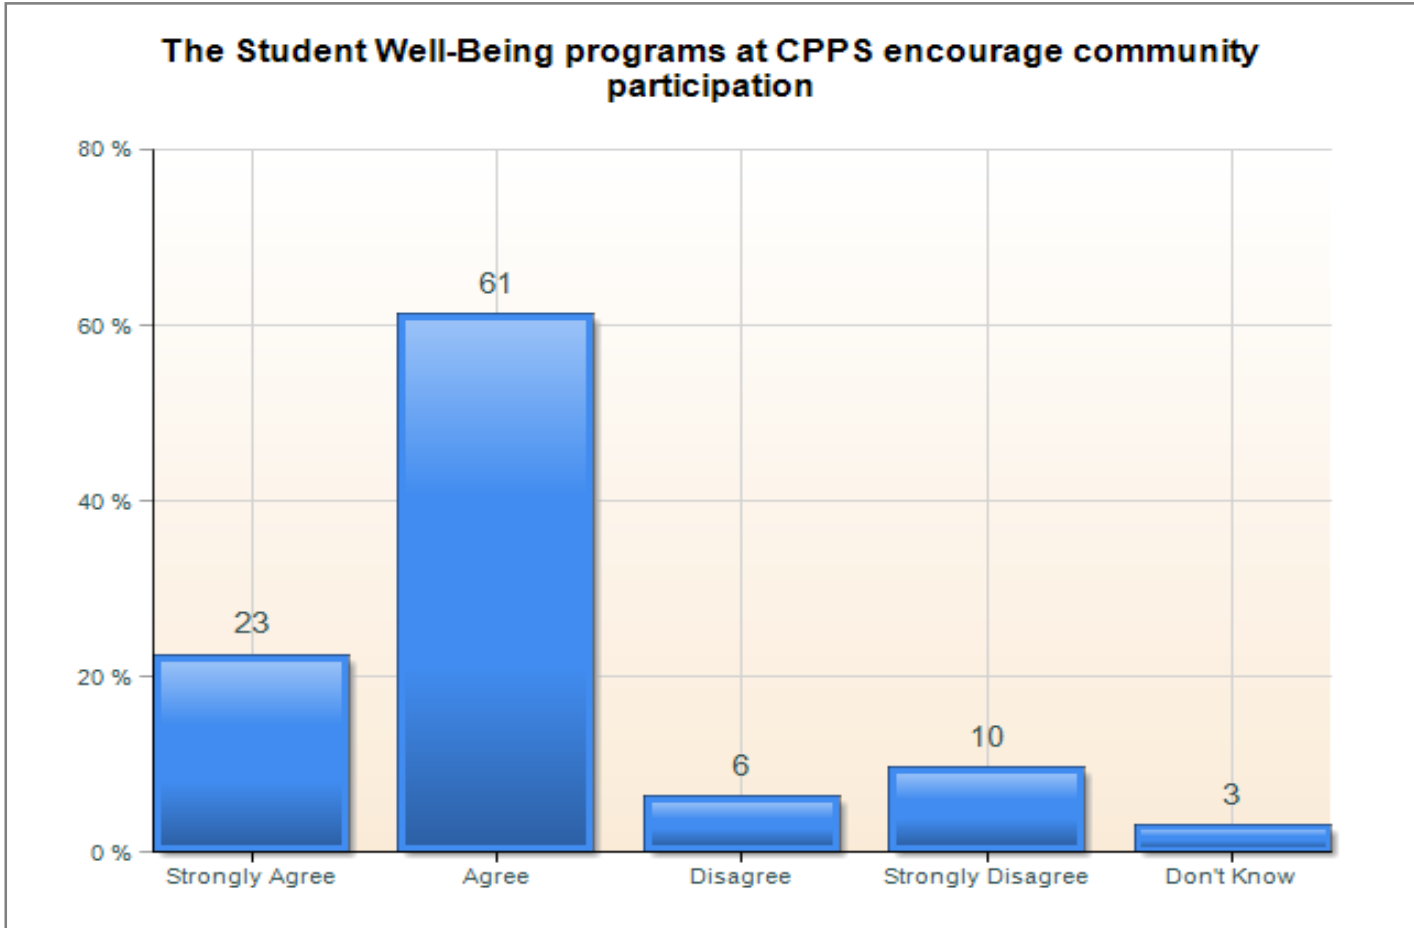

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: The Student Well-Being programs at CPPS encourage good discipline.

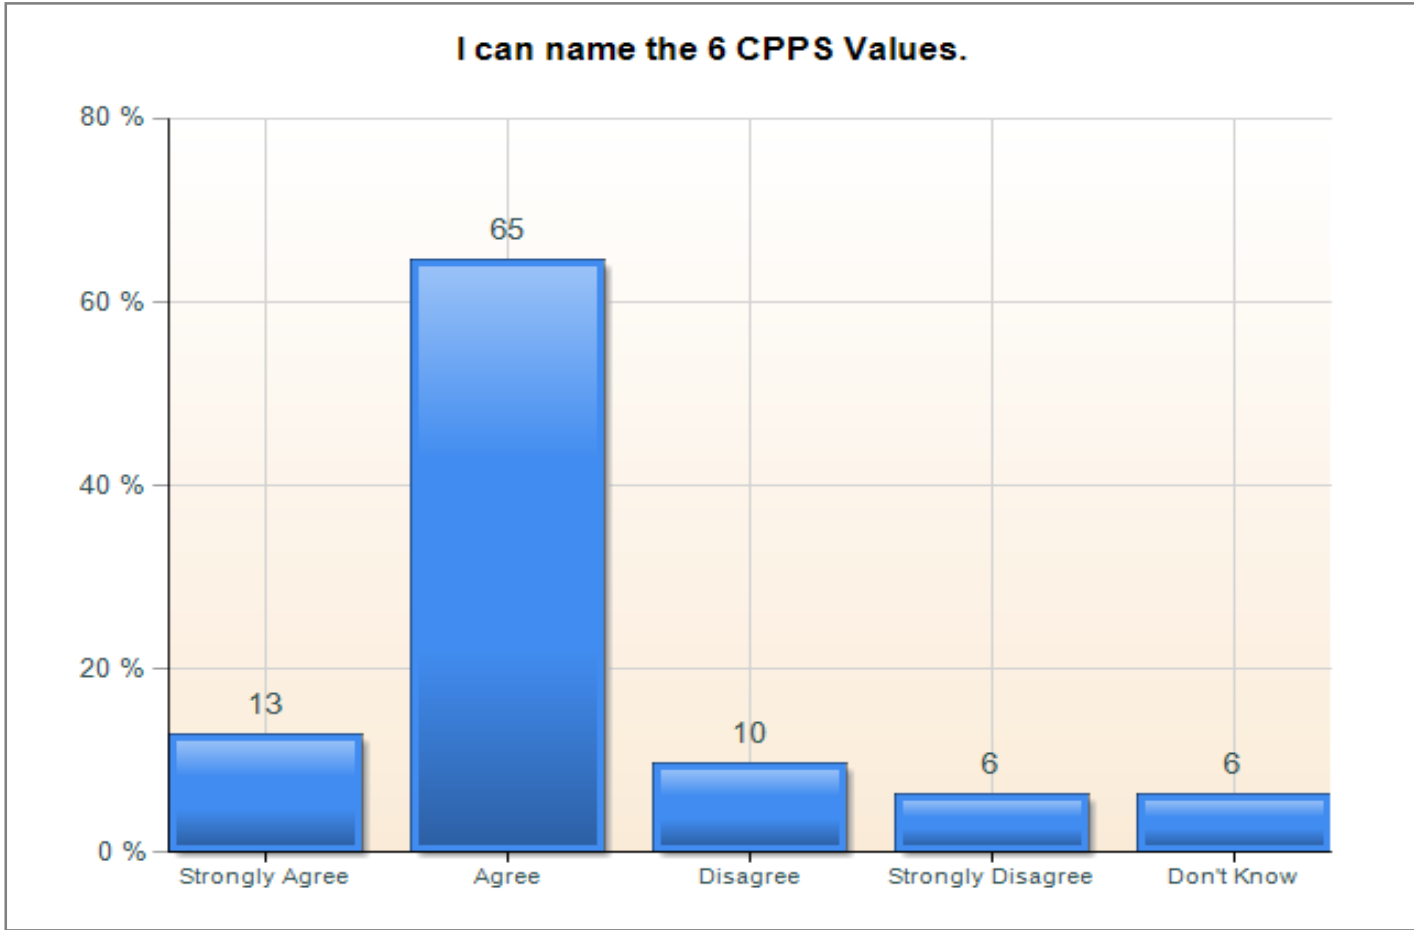

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: The Student Well-Being programs at CPPS encourage effective teaching and learning

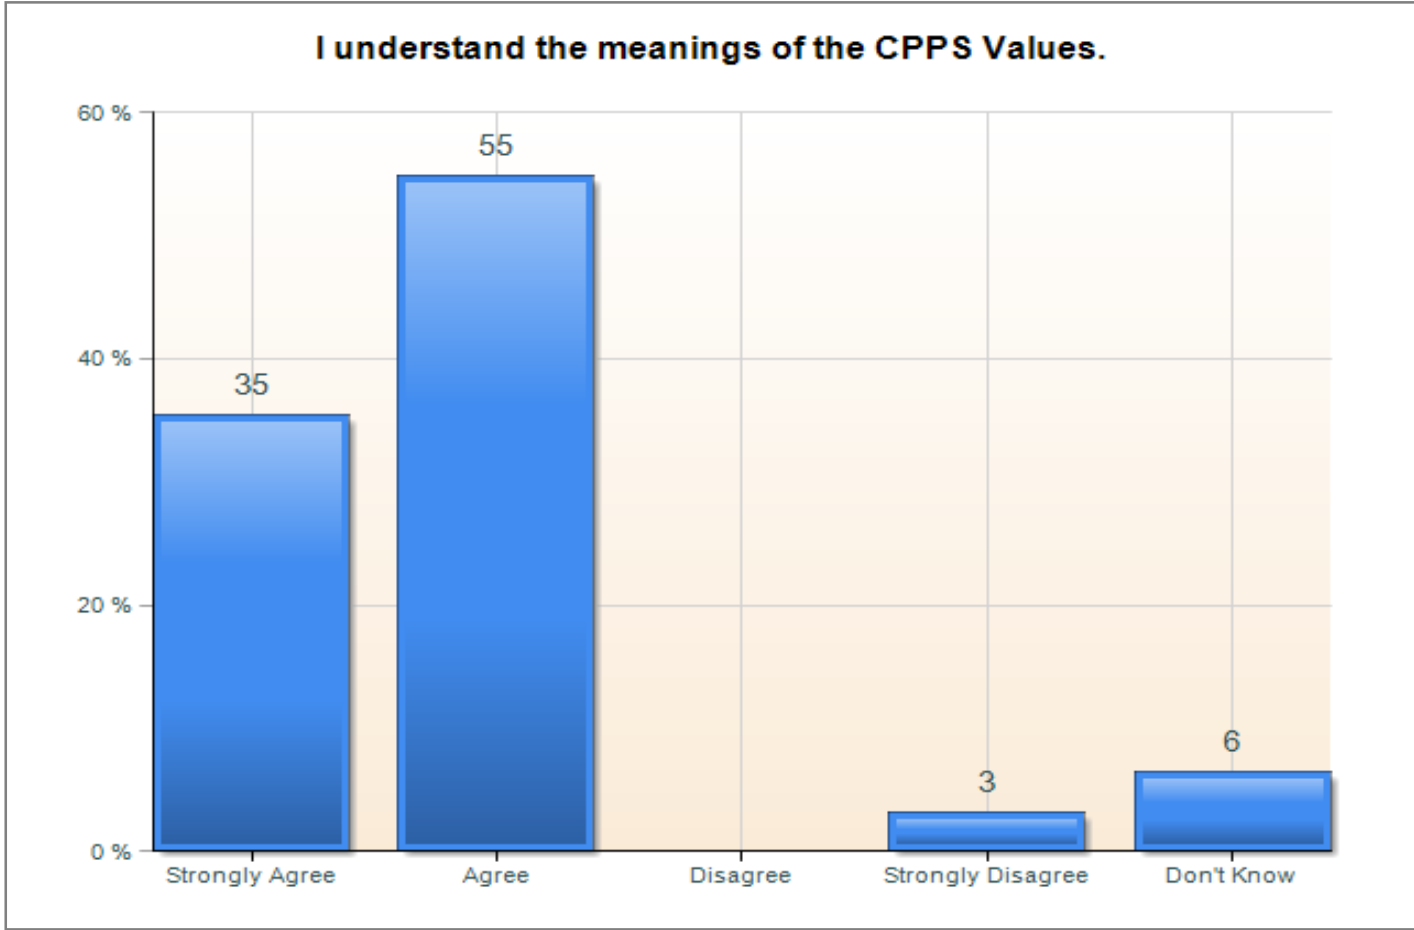

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: The Student Well-Being programs at CPPS encourage community participation

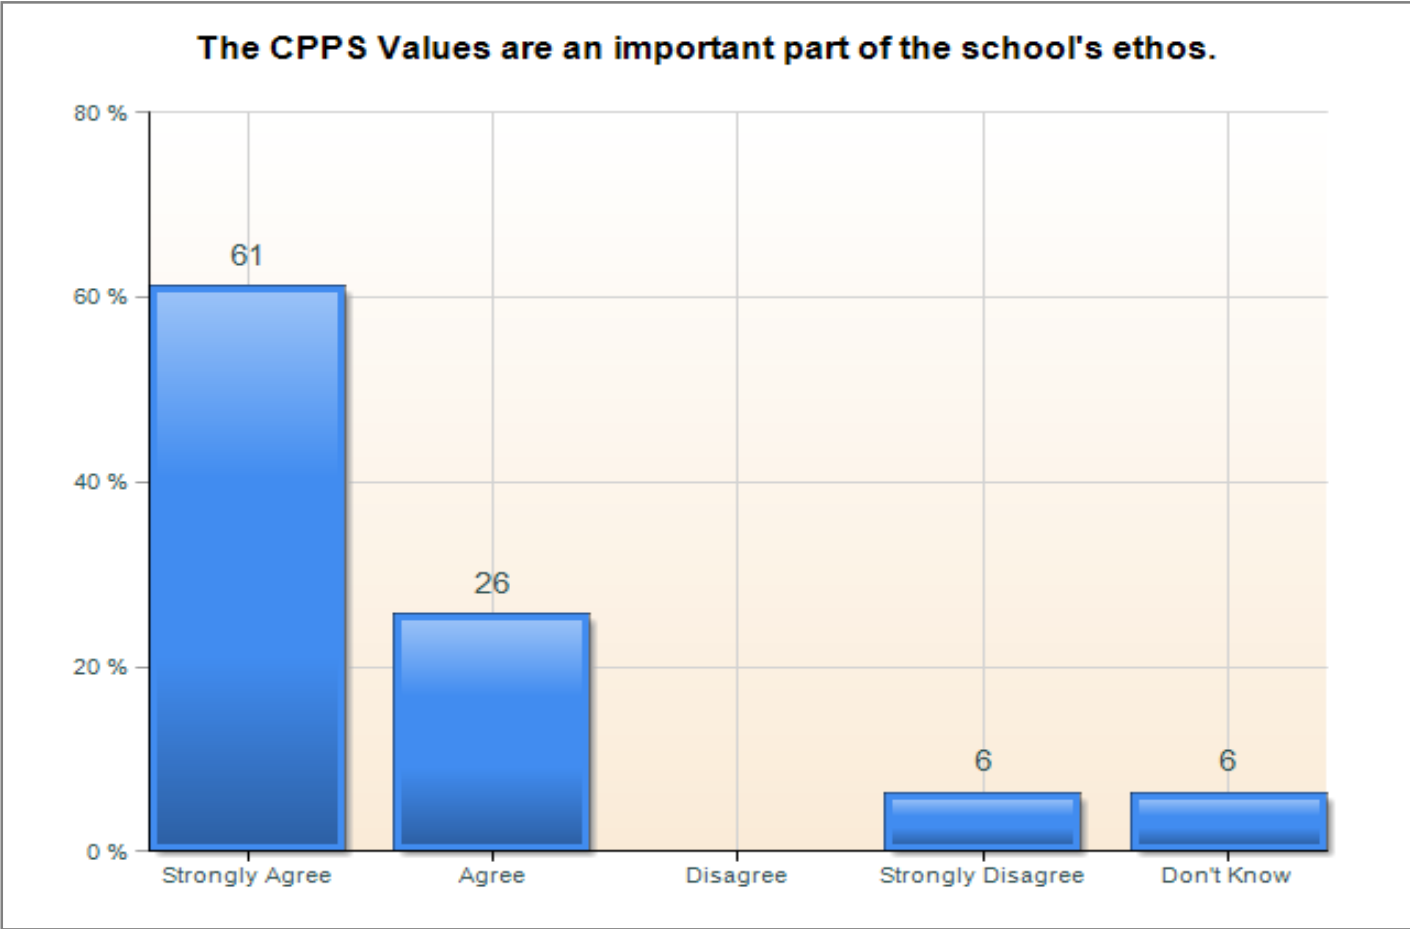

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: I can name the 6 CPPS Values.

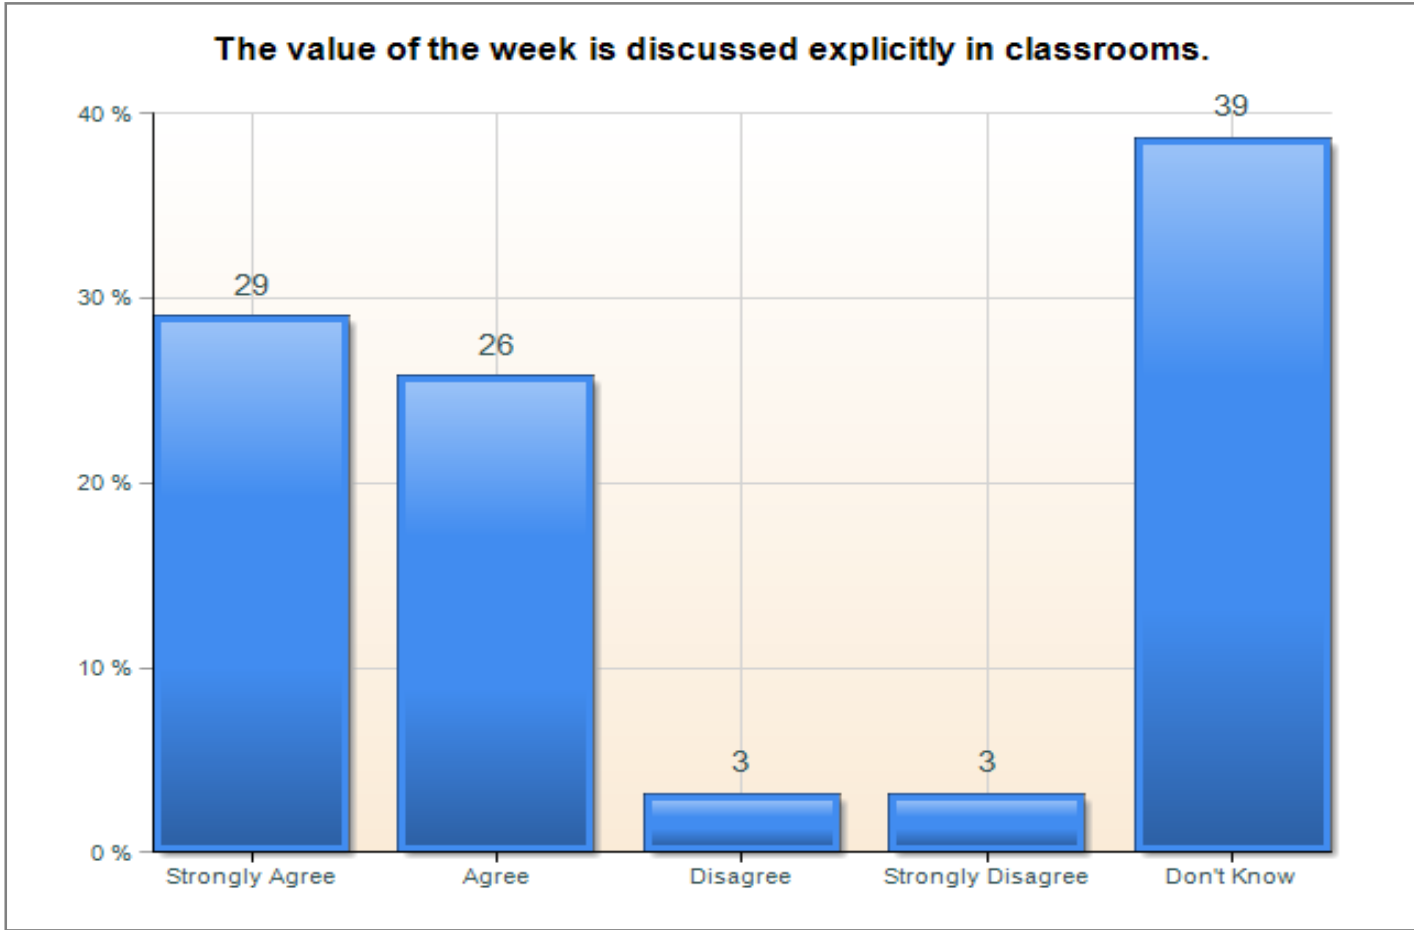

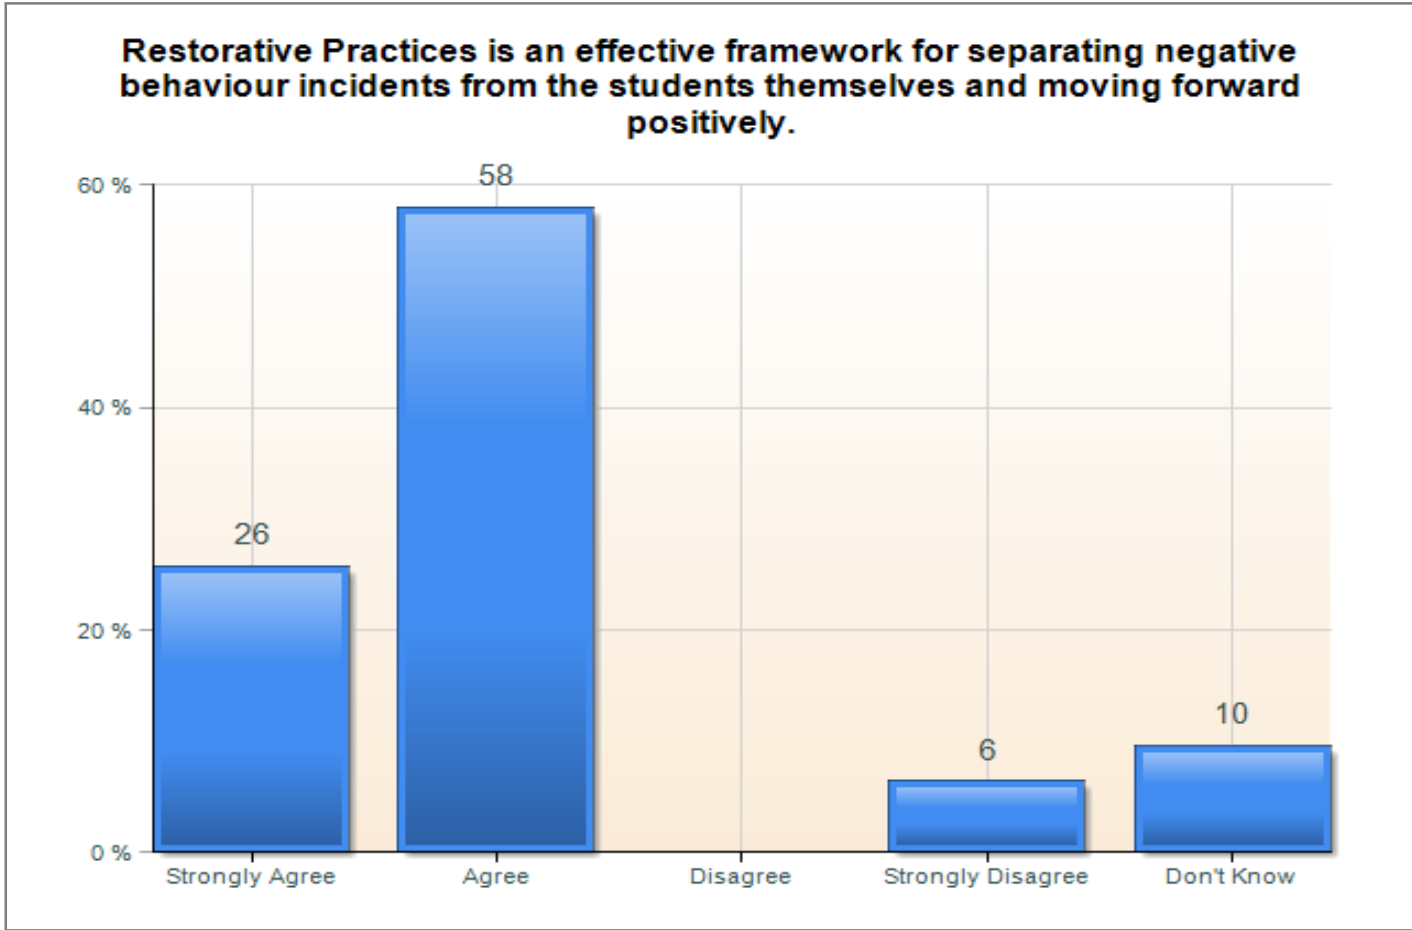

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: The CPPS Values are an important part of the school's ethos.

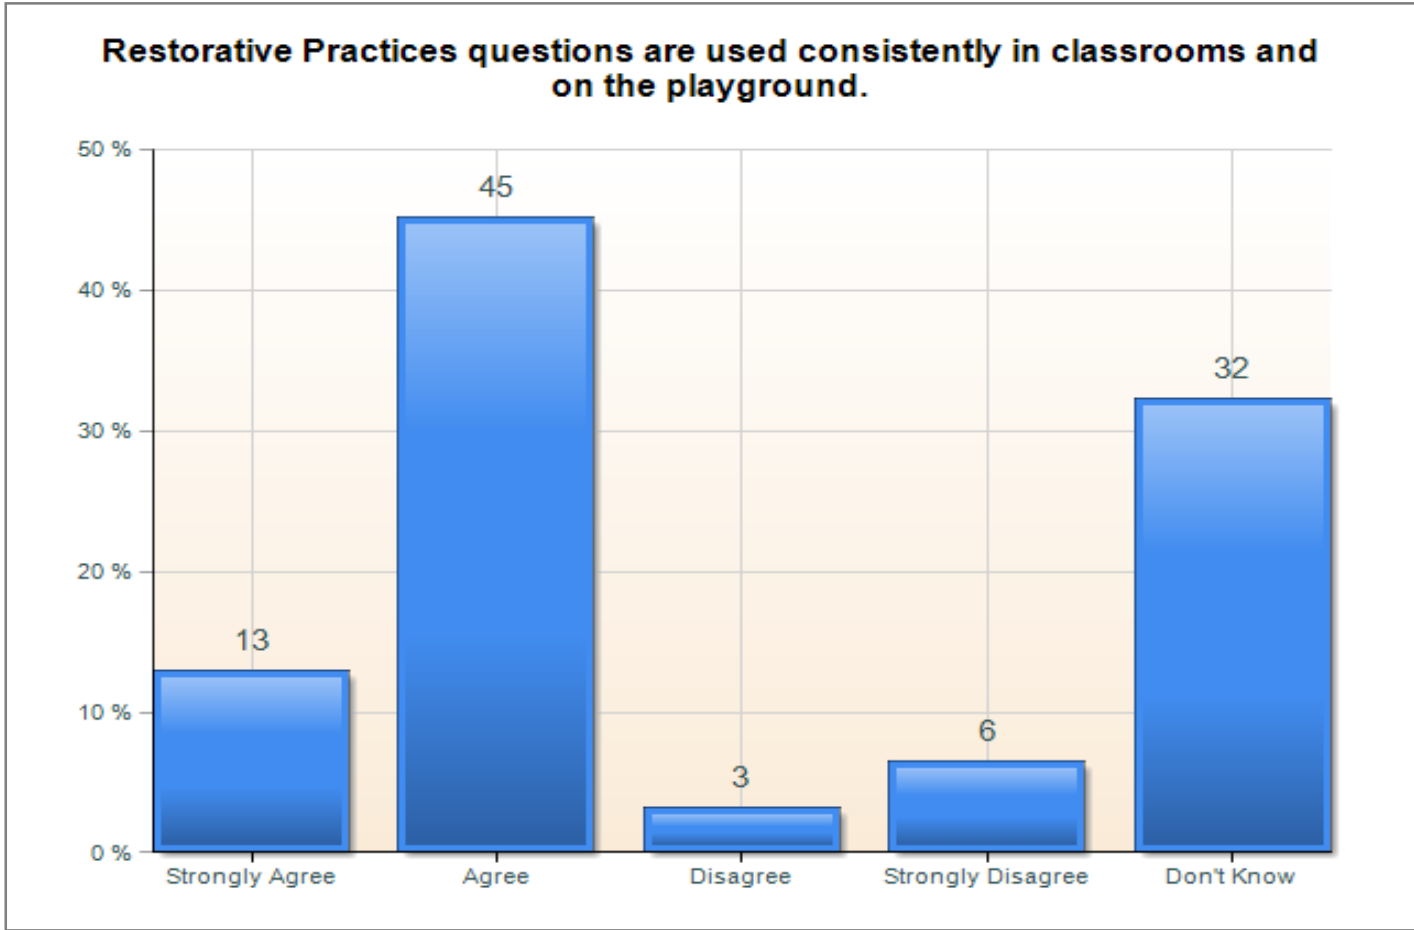

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: The value of the week is discussed explicitly in classrooms.

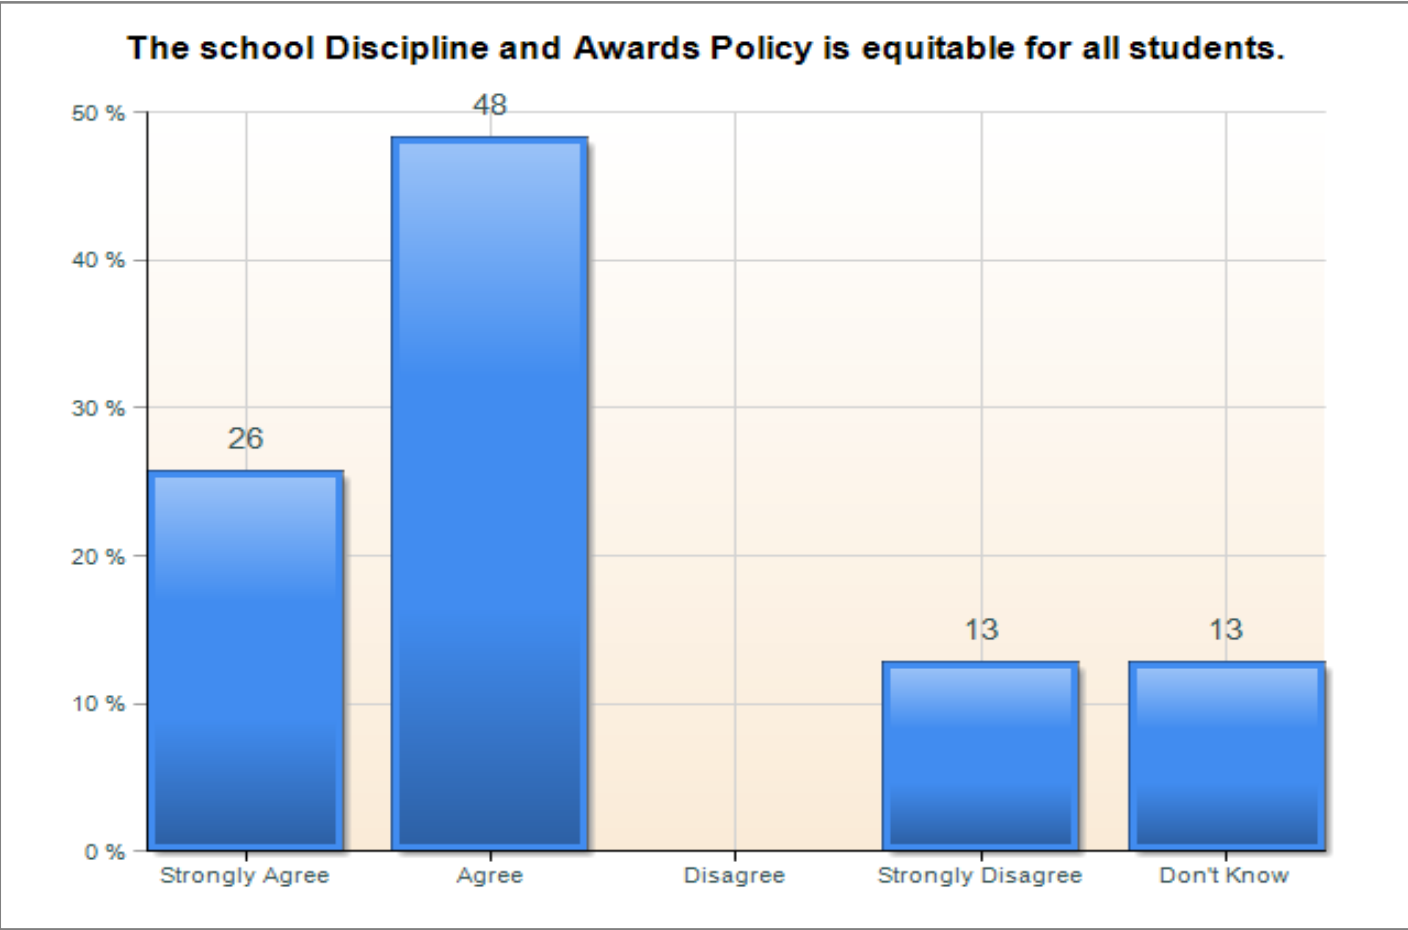

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: Restorative Practices is an effective framework for separating negative behaviour incidents from the students themselves and moving forward positively.

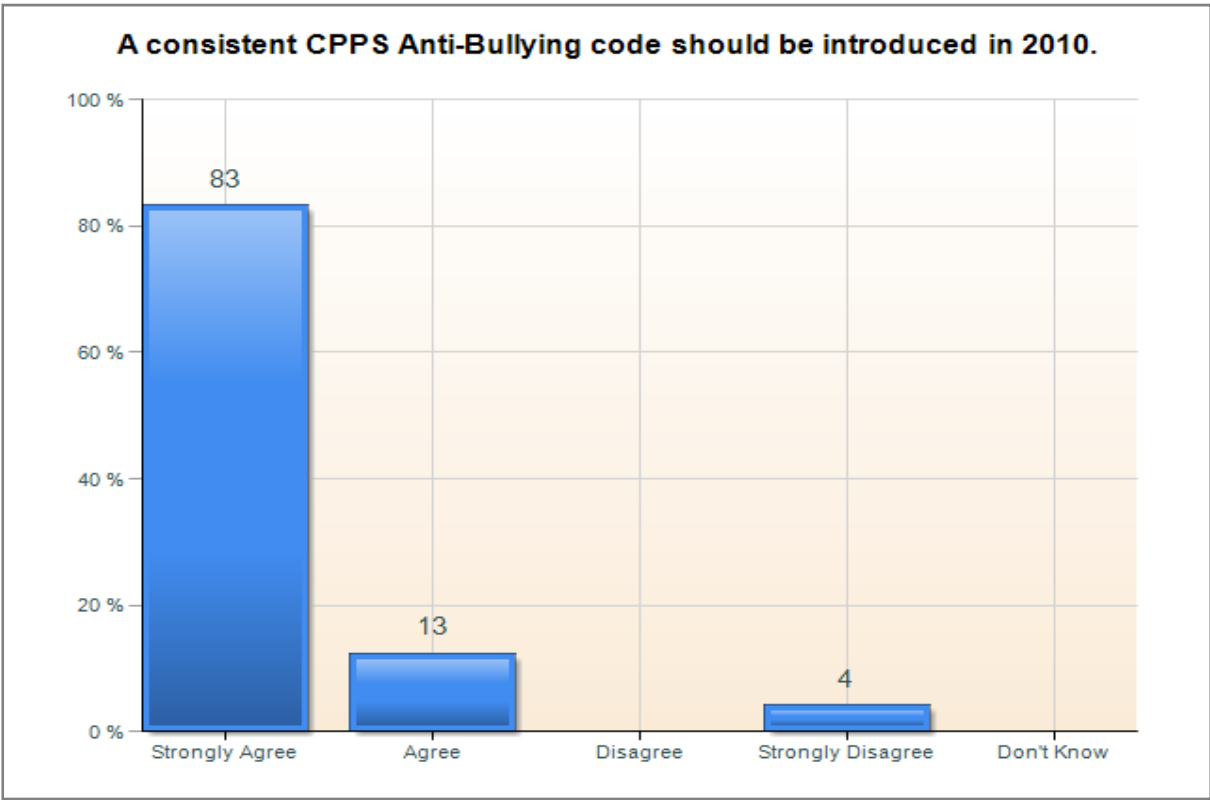

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: Restorative Practices questions are used consistently in classrooms and on the playground.

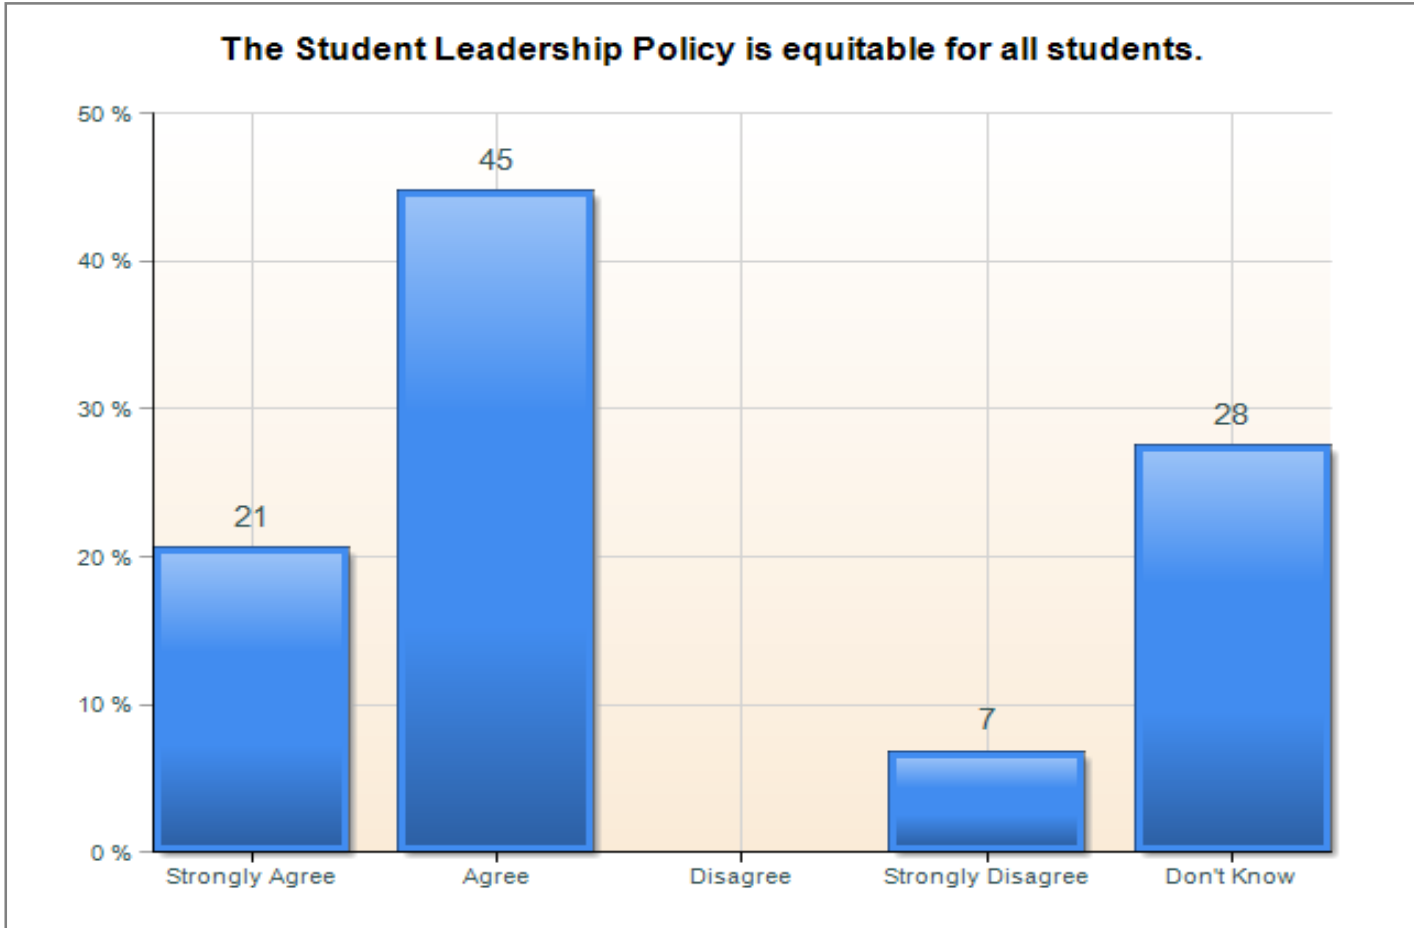

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: The school Discipline and Awards Policy is equitable for all students.

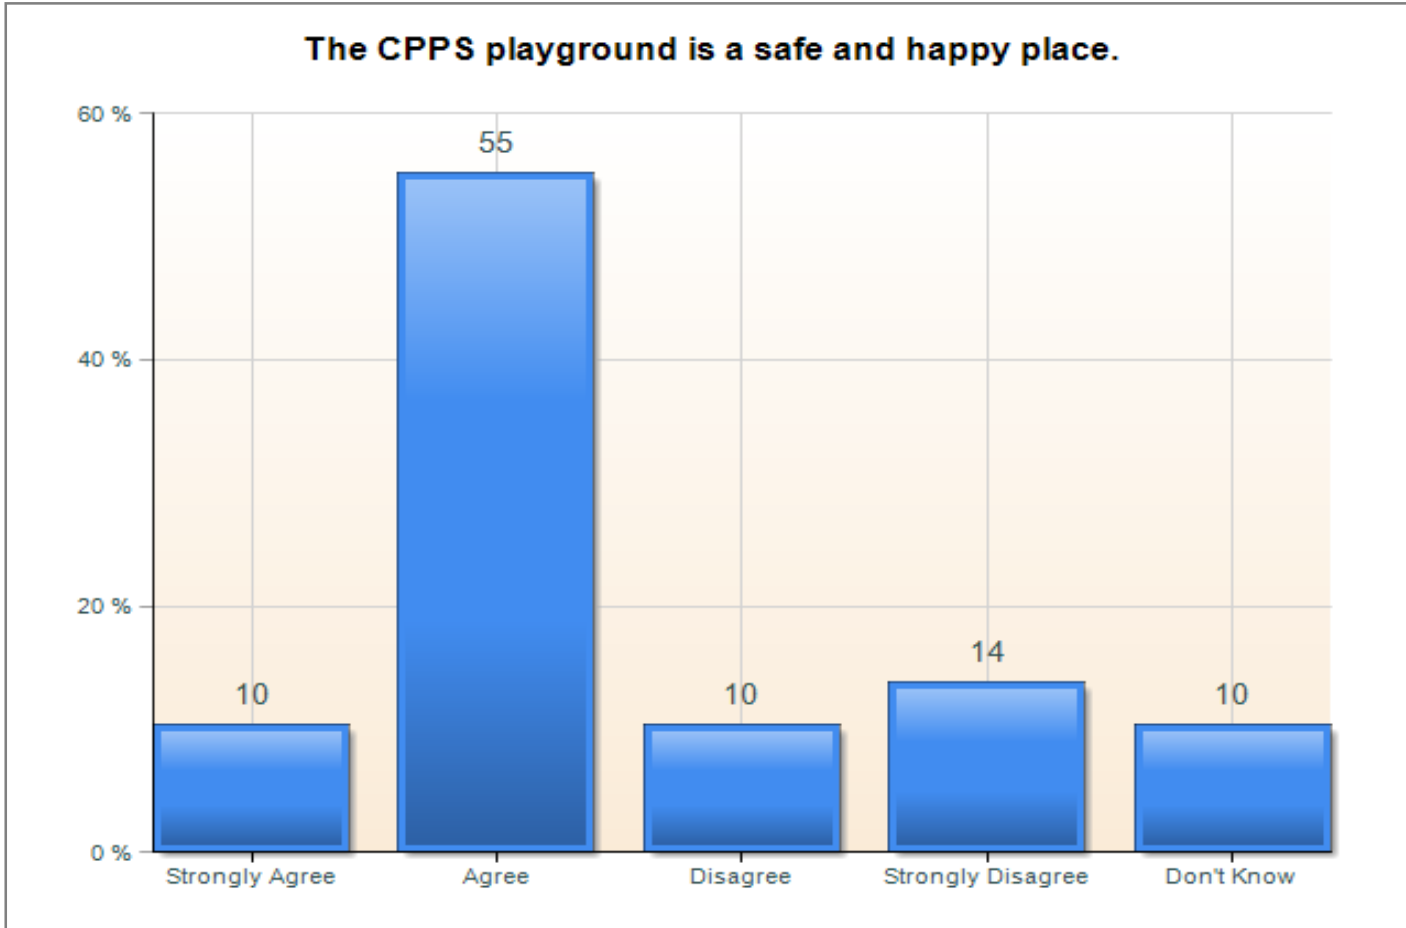

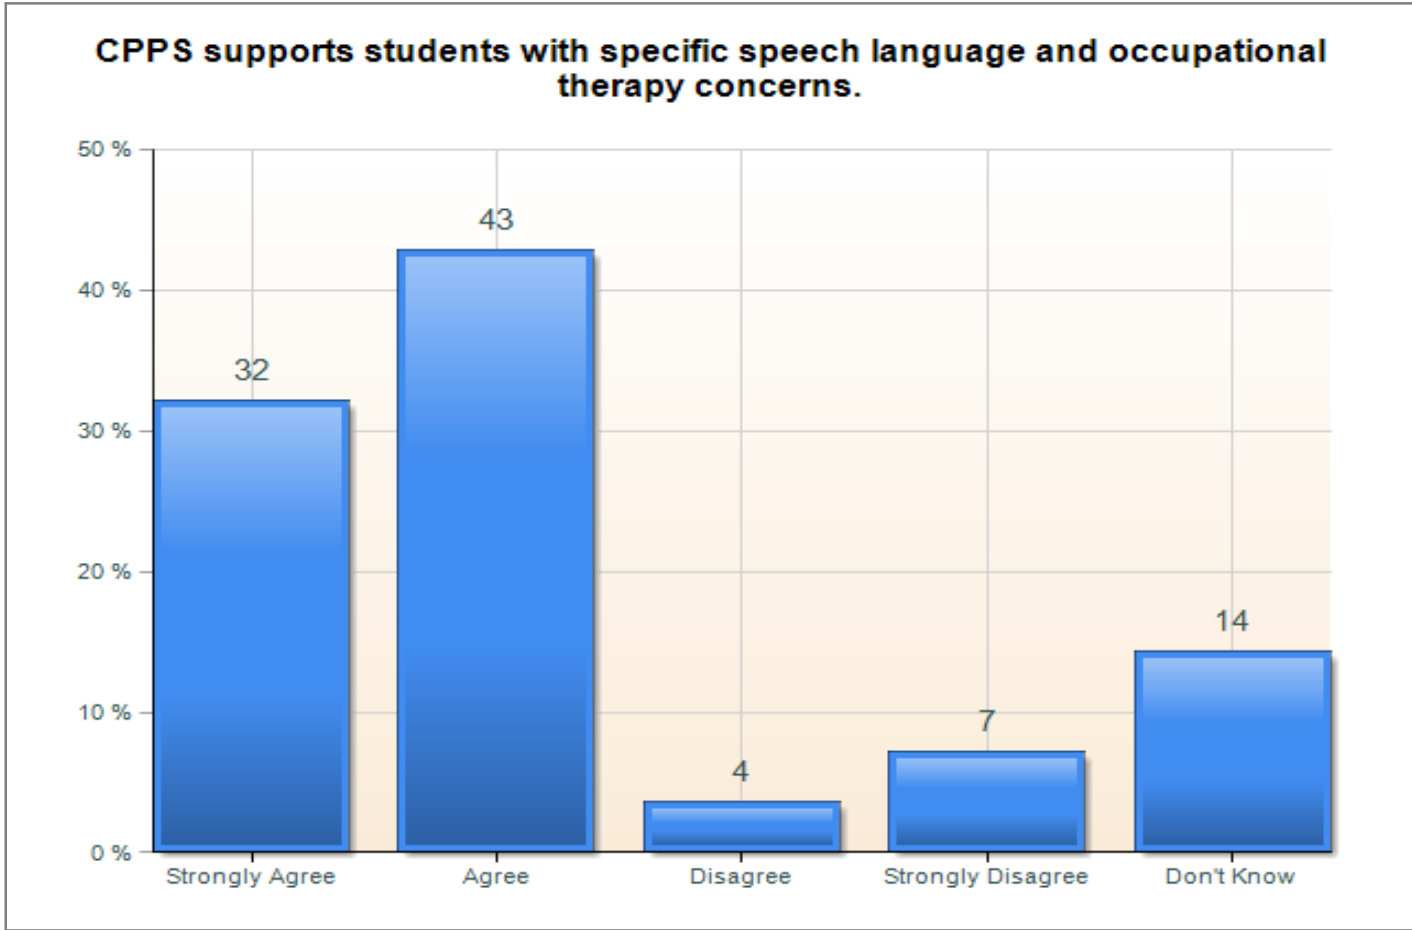

| A consistent CPPS Anti-Bullying code should be introduced in 2010. | |
|--|-----------|
| Strongly Agree | 20 (83 %) |
| Agree | 3 (12 %) |
| Disagree | 0 (0 %) |
| Strongly Disagree | 1 (4 %) |
| Don't Know | 0 (0 %) |

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: The Student Leadership Policy is equitable for all students.

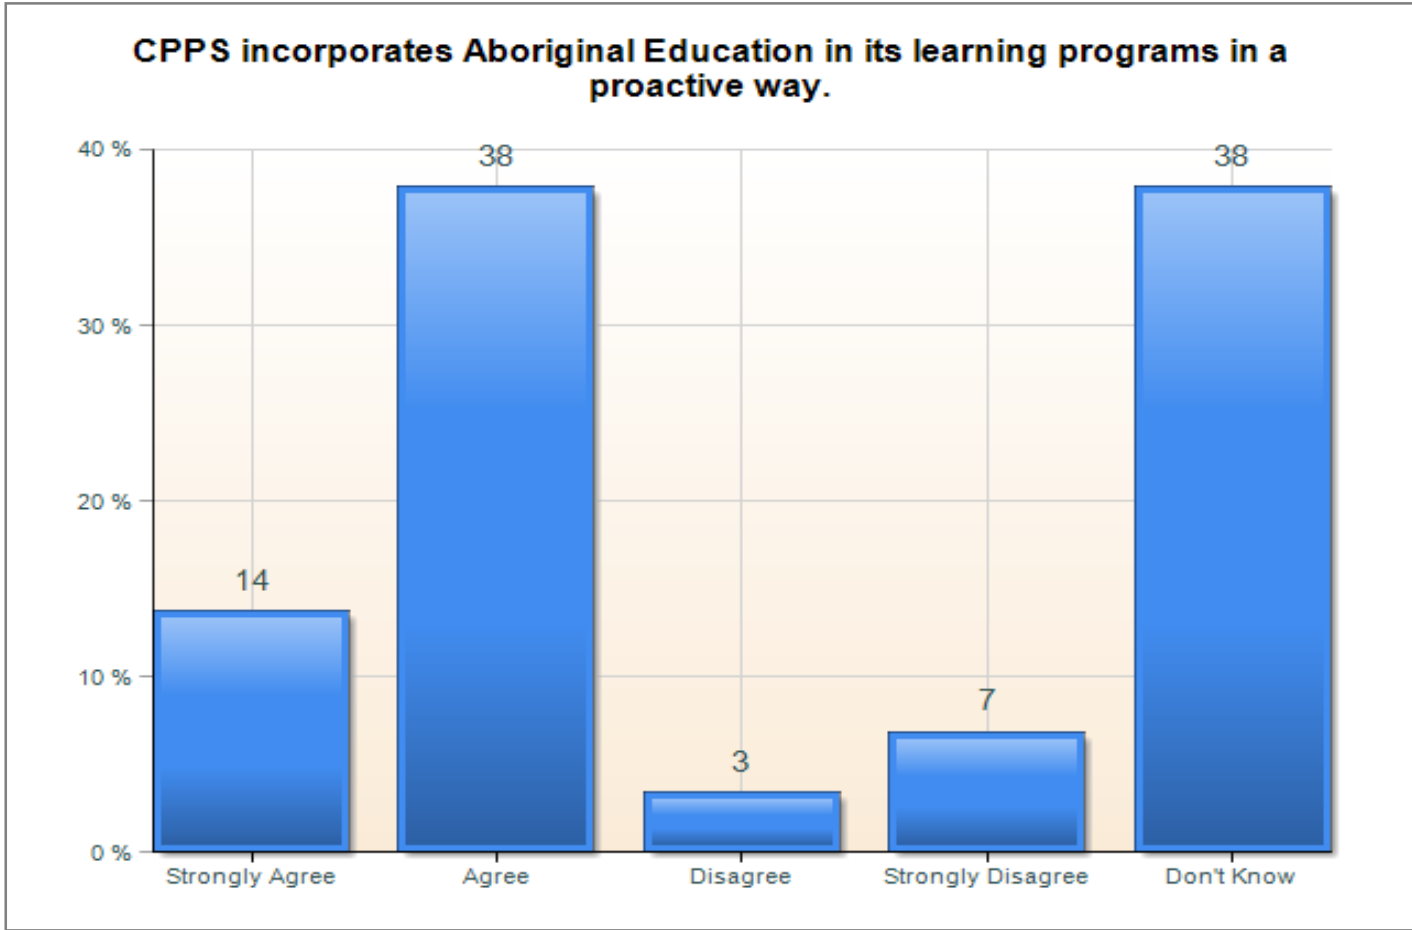

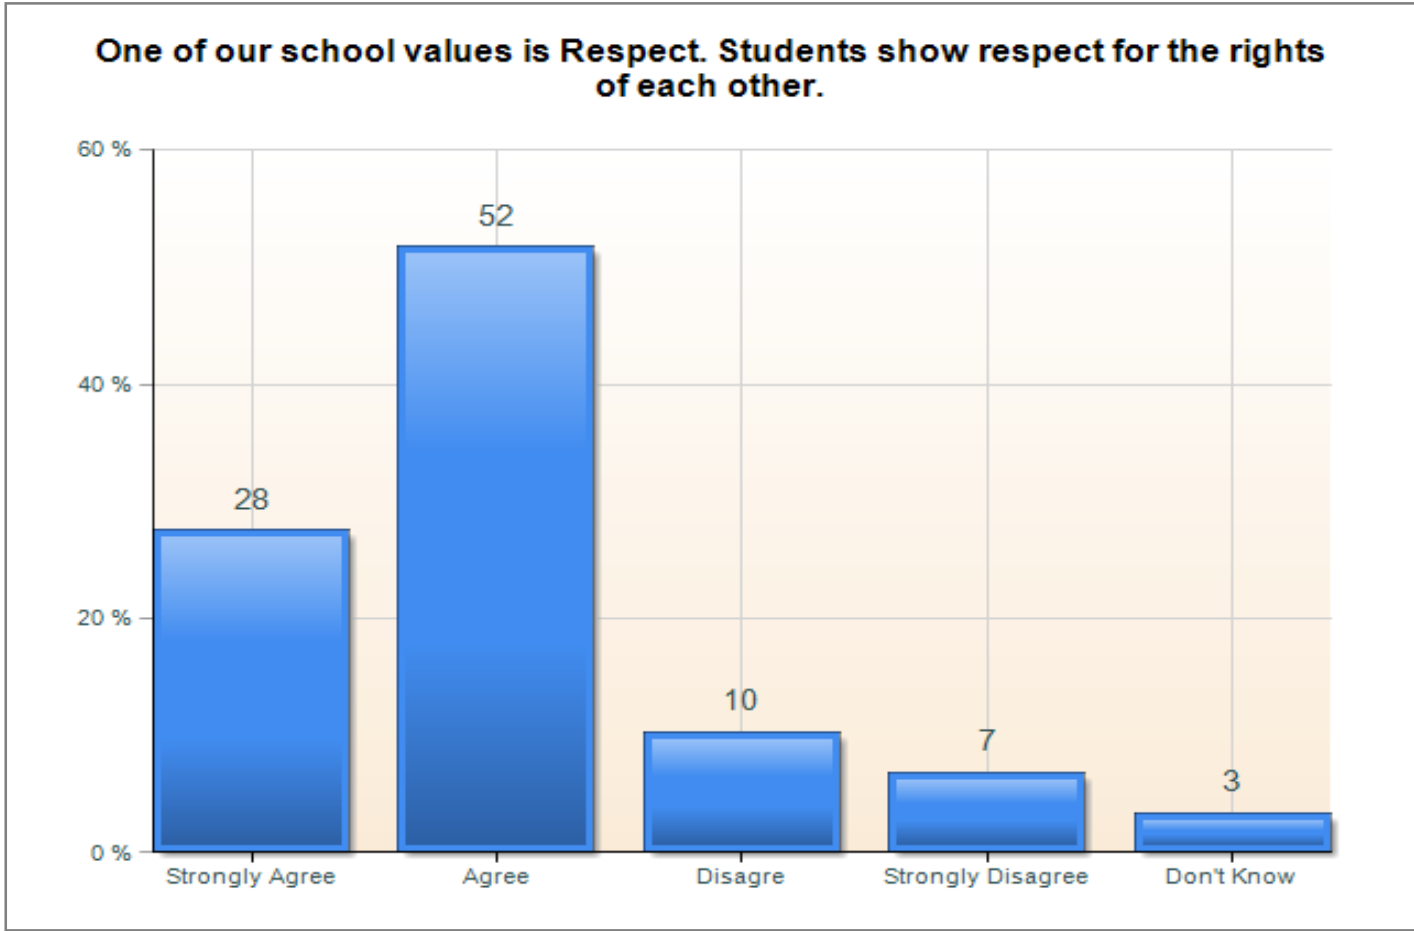

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: CPPS supports students with specific speech language and occupational therapy concerns.

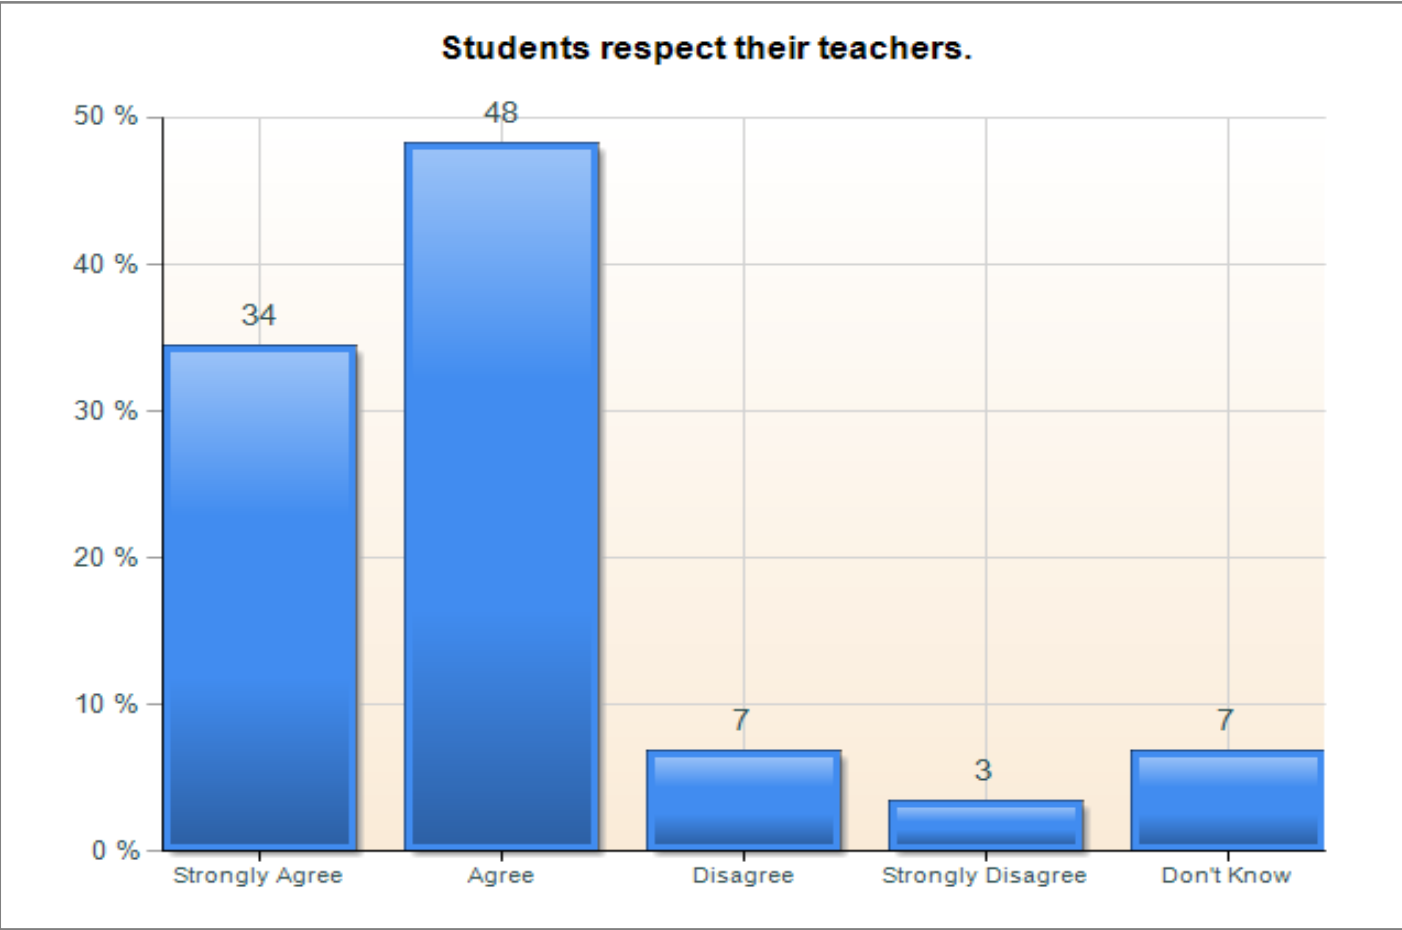

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: CPPS incorporates Aboriginal Education in its learning programs in a proactive way.

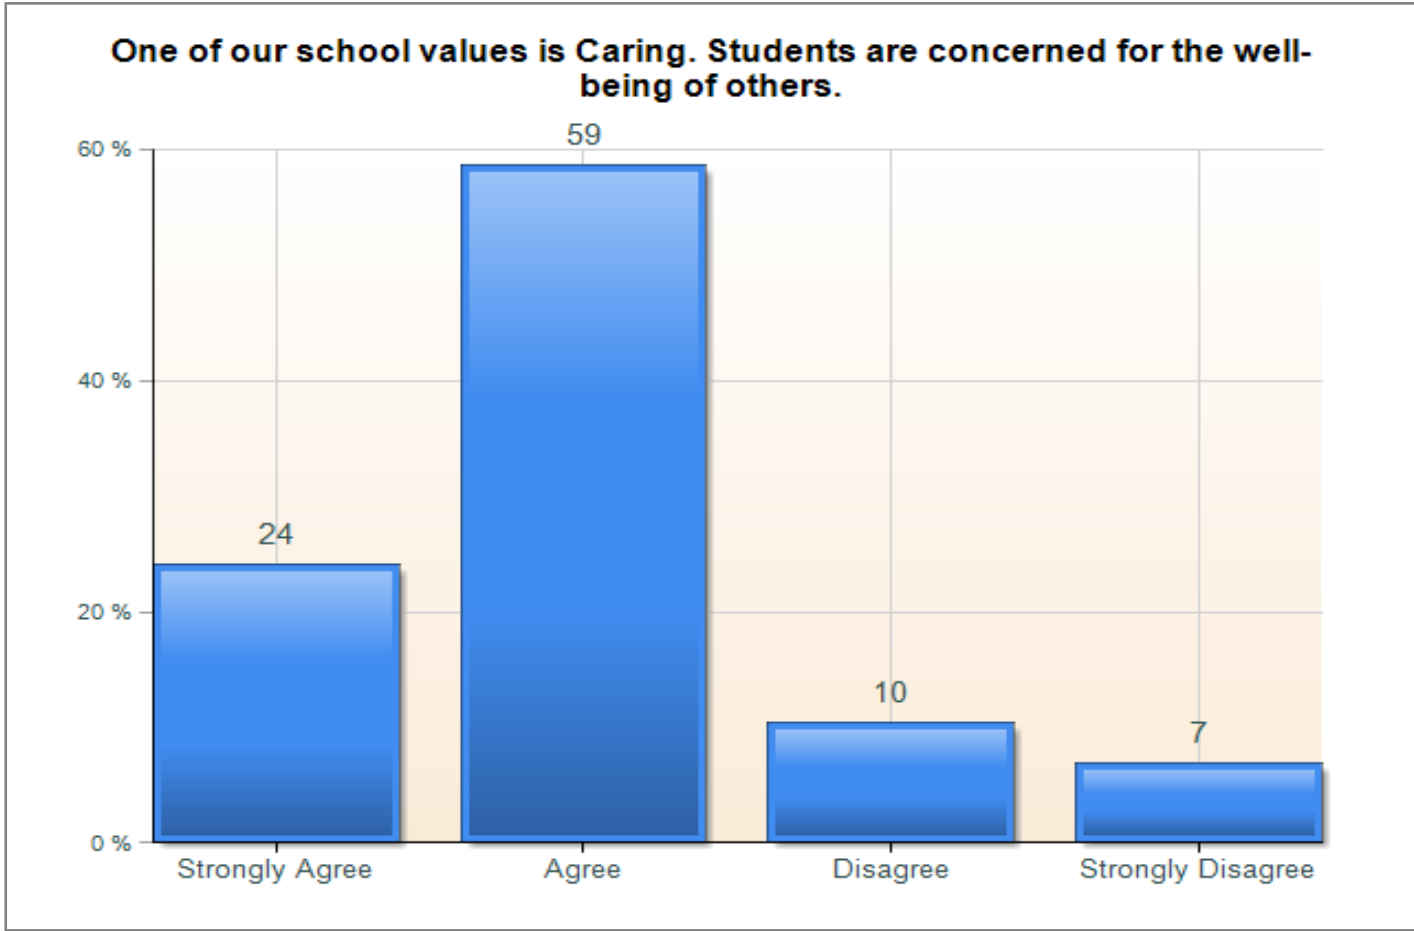

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: One of our school values is Respect. Students show respect for the rights of each other.

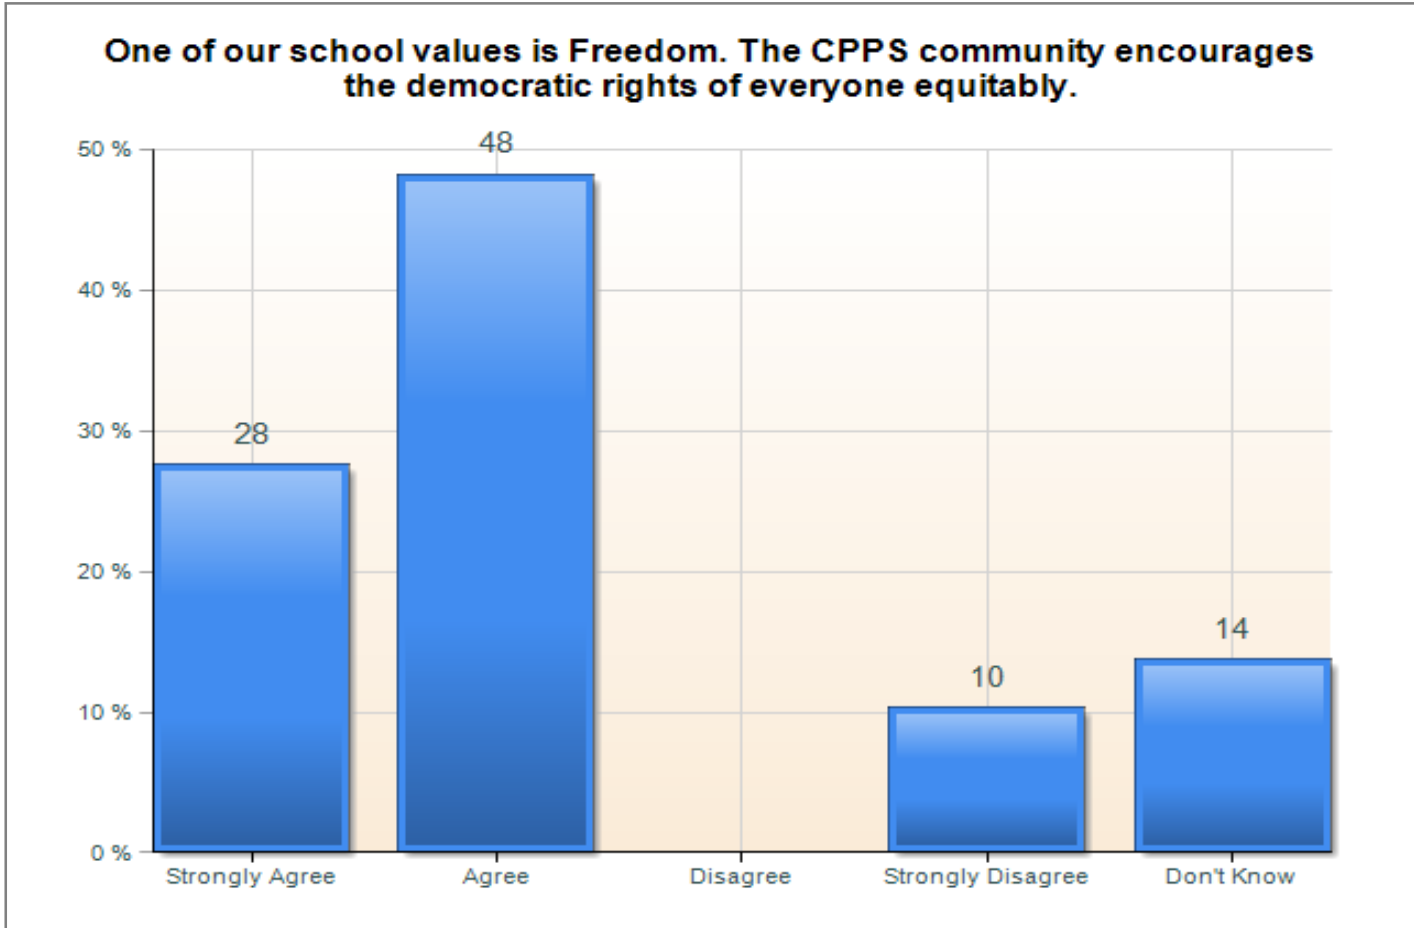

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: Students respect their teachers.

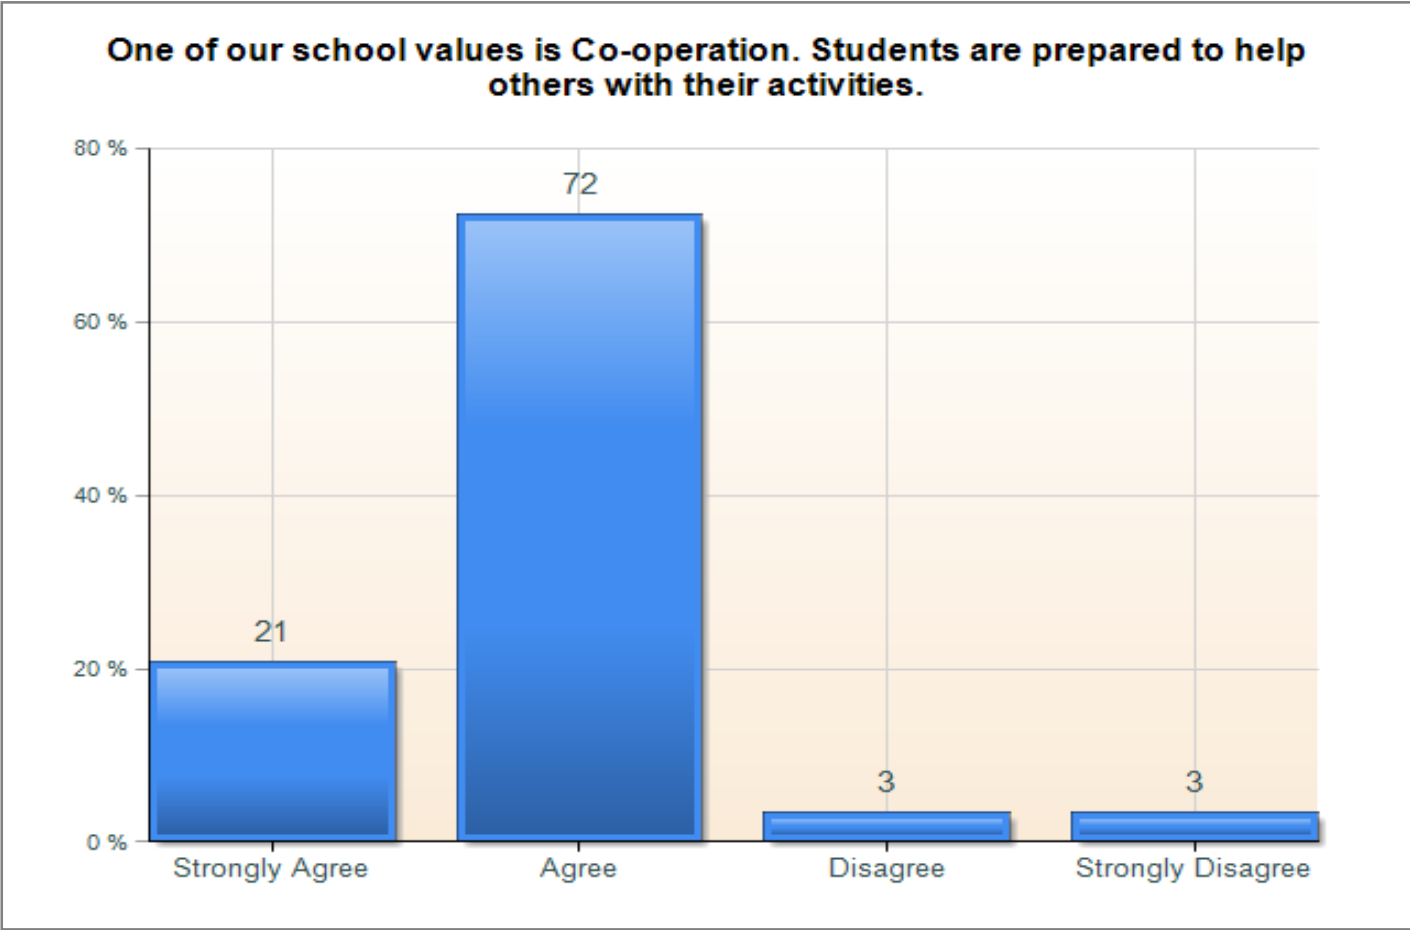

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: One of our school values is Caring. Students are concerned for the well-being of others.

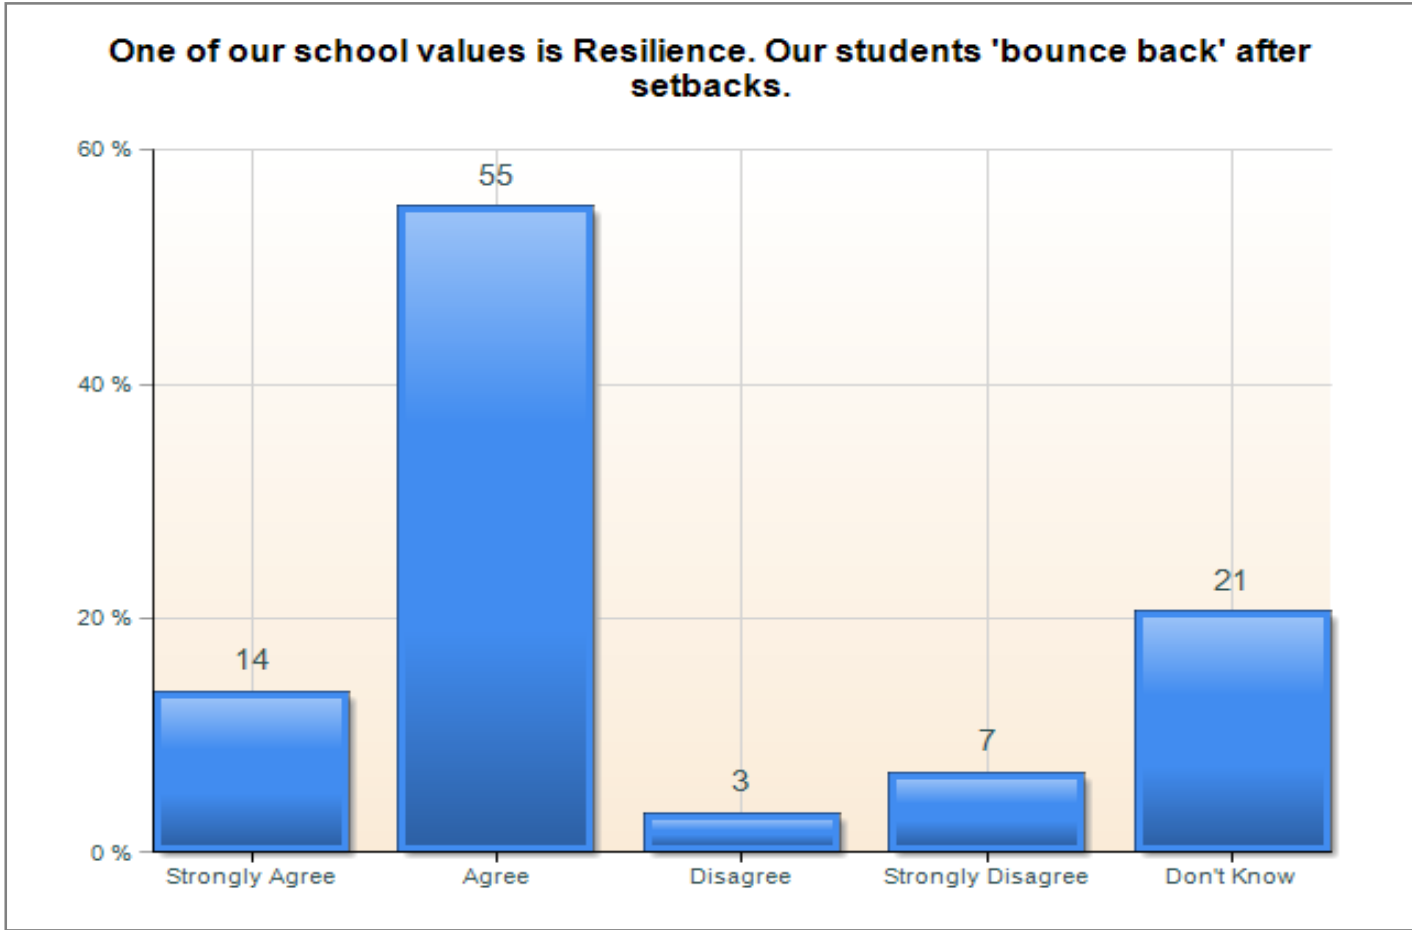

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: One of our school values is Freedom. The CPPS community encourages the democratic rights of every ...

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: One of our school values is Co-operation. Students are prepared to help others with their activit ...

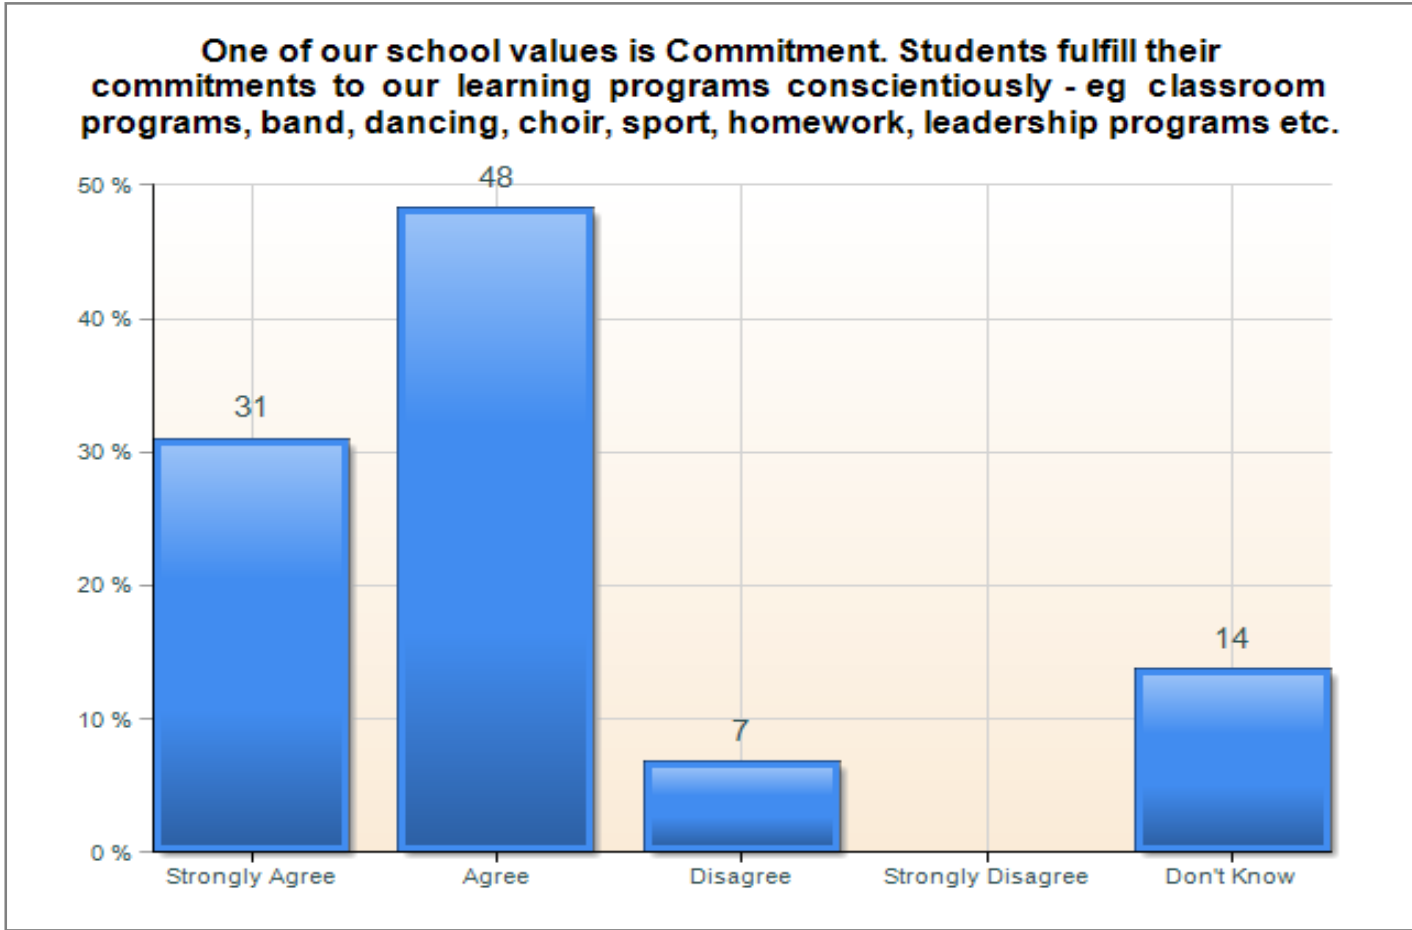

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: One of our school values is Resilience. Our students 'bounce back' after setbacks.

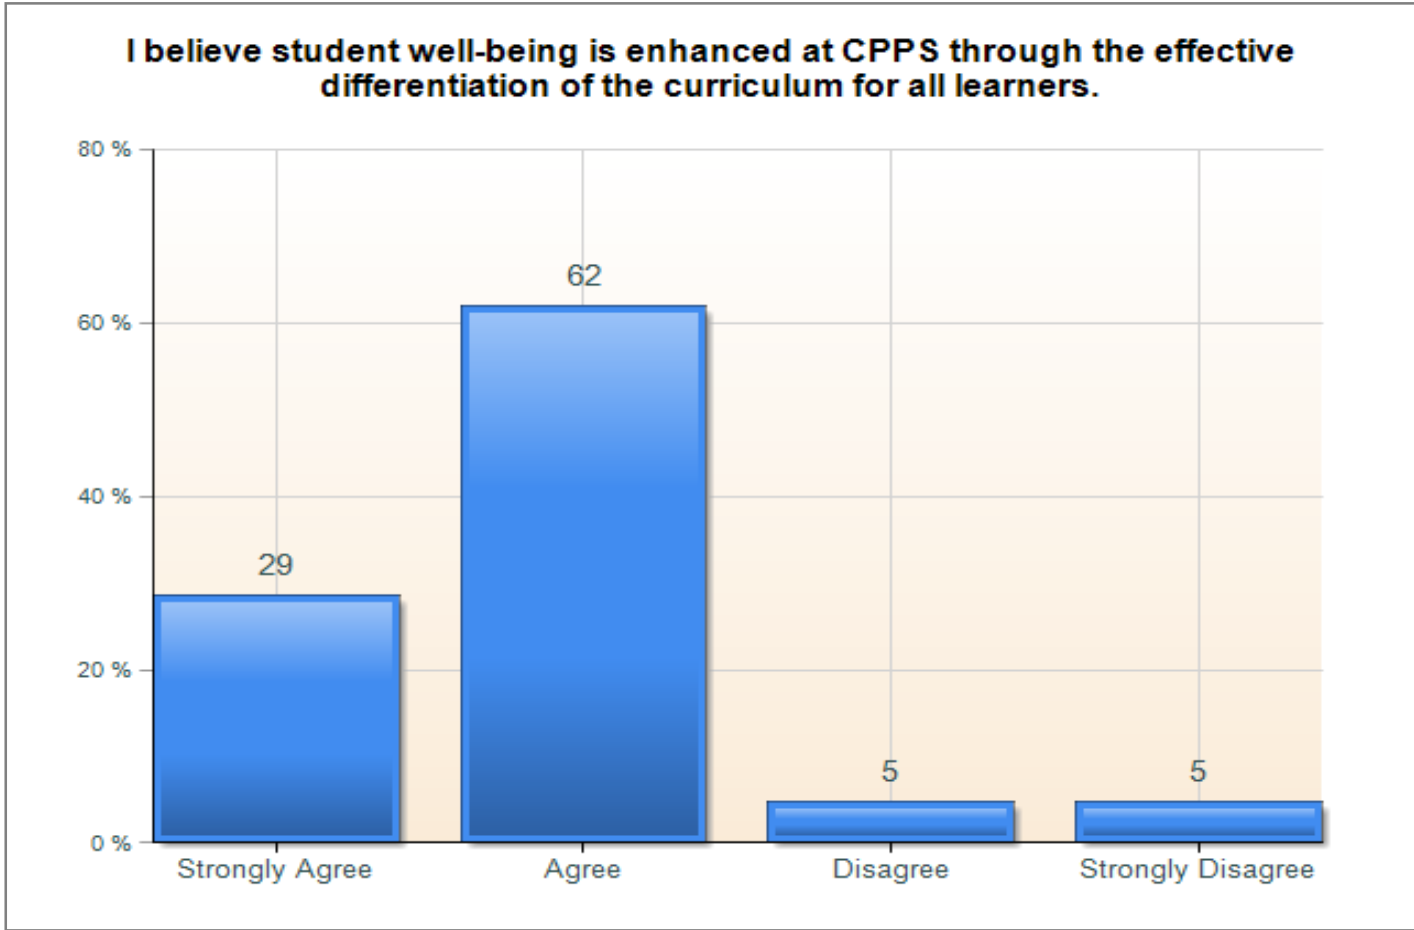

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: One of our school values is Commitment.

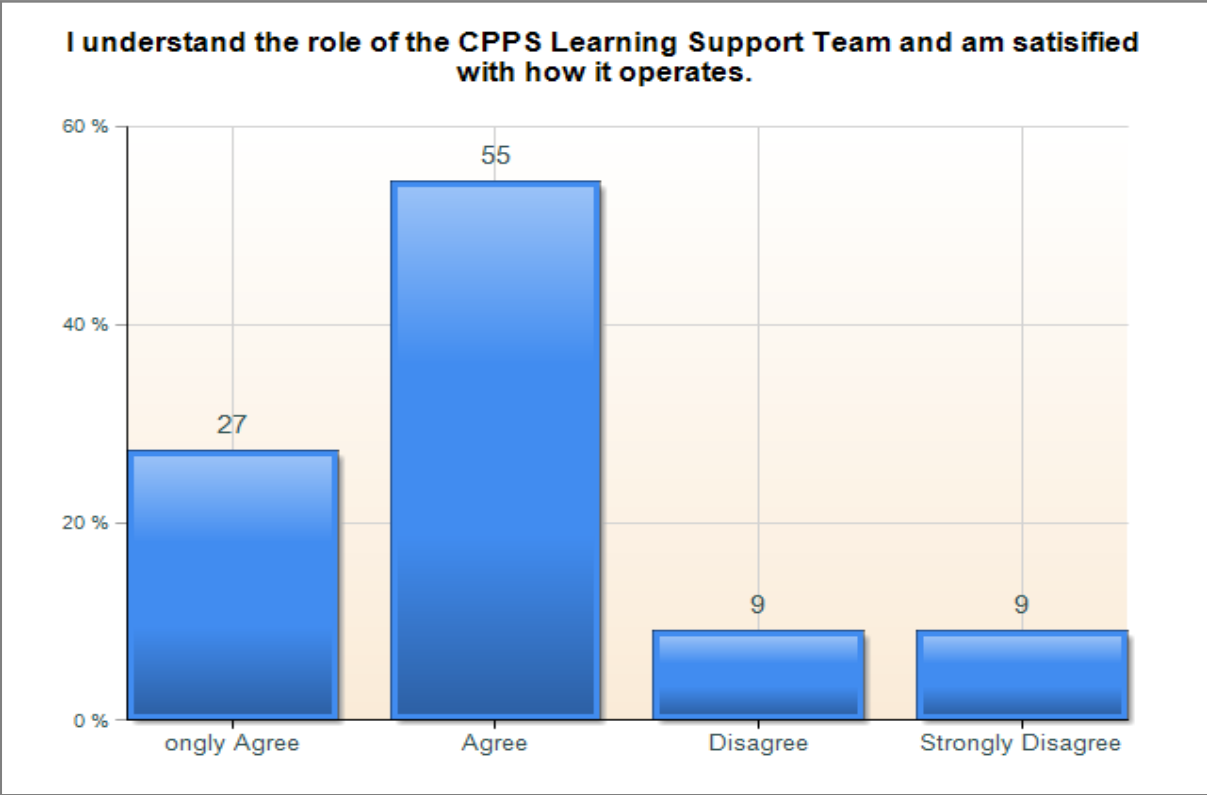

Students fulfill their commitments to our learning progra ...

Student Well-Being Parents 2009: I believe student well-being is enhanced at CPPS through the effective differentiation of the cur ...

Student Well-BeingParents 2009: I understand the role of the CPPS Learning Support Team and am satisfied with how it operates.

I understand the role of the CPPS Learning Support Team and am satisfied with how it operates.

| | |
|-------------------|-----------|
| ongly Agree | 6 (27 %) |
| Agree | 12 (55 %) |
| Disagree | 2 (9 %) |
| Strongly Disagree | 2 (9 %) |